

At the Beach

James was at the beach with his parents and brother, Ben. James had spent a long time building a sandcastle earlier but a huge wave destroyed it. James was sad but he decided to build another one. This time, James built it further from the shore so that a similar incident would not happen.

Ben went looking for seashells. He needed seashells to decorate the cards he made. The boys' parents were sitting on a bench under the shade of a tree. Their mother was reading a book while their father was reading the newspapers.

They spent the whole afternoon relaxing at the beach. When the boys were hungry, they ate the sandwiches that their mother had made. In the late afternoon, their father went for a swim with the boys. They left the beach just before sunset. It had been a fun day for the whole family.
