

Idioms Starting with the letter 'C'

Choose the most suitable idiom(s) for each of the situations below.

caved in	come to a bad end	changing for the better
curry favour	cries wolf	curtain lecture
cross my mind	come into line	castles in the air
close one eye	cast your net wide	come to light
cold fish

- 1 We don't take Will seriously. He always _____ when nothing is wrong.
- 2 Priscilla tried to _____ with her new boss by buying him gifts almost every day.
- 3 The new principal has cautioned the students to _____ or there would be serious consequences.
- 4 If you want to make it big in the entertainment sector, you have to _____ . If you don't, your ambitions will just be _____ .
- 5 Mr Lim was sent to the hospital when his heart _____. Now, with treatment, his health is _____ .
- 6 It will soon _____ who the real culprit is. All cheaters will _____ .

- 7 It did not _____ to invite Sue to the party. She is a _____ who hardly talks to anyone.
- 8 The principal gave Mr Cole a _____ about his unprofessional work ethics. He reminded him that he will not _____ to Mr Cole's sloppiness.

Answers:
 1 cries wolf
 2 curry favour
 3 come into line
 4 cast your net wide; castles in the air

5 caved in; changing for the better
 6 come to light; come to a bad end
 7 cross my mind; cold fish
 8 curtain lecture; close one eye