

Reading 1 — My Birthday Party

I turn seven today. My mother bakes me a big chocolate cake. It is shaped like a train because I like trains. She also cooks a lot of delicious food. I invite my friends to my party. They give me many presents.

When everybody has arrived, we play games like ‘musical chairs’ and ‘pin the tail on the donkey’. There are prizes for the winners. After the games, my friends sing the birthday song. I make a wish before blowing out the candles. Then I cut the cake and we eat the food.

Before long, my party is over. I say goodbye to everyone and thank them for coming.
