

Reading 1 — When Grandmother Came to Stay

Last December, my grandmother came to Singapore from Malaysia to stay with me. She stayed with me for a week.

My grandmother had a lot of presents for me when she arrived. She gave me clothes, food and toys. Every morning, my grandmother made breakfast for me. She made porridge. Her porridge was very tasty. She also made lunch and dinner. I ate so much at every meal that I put on weight. My grandmother also went to the minimart in the afternoons. She took me along with her and bought me ice cream and sweets.

I was sad when my grandmother had to leave. I promised to visit her in Malaysia during the school holidays.
